

Parallel sessions - Discussion groups/Workshops/Presentations

8th INTERNATIONAL NURSING AND MIDWIFERY STUDENT CONFERENCE IN SPIRITUAL CARE 2017

Spiritual Care - a resource

	A - Room: Church room	B - Room: 3.2.04	C - Room: 3.2.22	D - Room: 3.2.06	E - Room: 3.1.26	F - Room: 3.2.02	G - Room: 3.2.26
Parallel session I Thursday 21th Sept. 13.45 - 14.45	Discussion group Related to: Understanding spirituality and spiritual care Kerstin Sivonen Finland	Workshop To identify spiritual needs (Scandinavian language) Kari Strand, VID, Oslo, N	Workshop How to do a spiritual assessment of patients? Britt M. Kuven HVL, N Tove Giske VID, Bergen, N	Workshop Spiritual care in a critical nursing context Gabrielle Macaulay Australia	Students Workshop Students' perceptions of spirituality/religion and spiritual coping Natasha Ross GB	Presentation Stepping into the patients place Vibeke Ø. Steinfeldt UC Absalon, DK	Presentation Exploring new ways of teaching students in spirituality Annette Langdahl UC South DK
						Presentation The holistic approach in prevention of cardiovascular risk Mykola Panchenko Ukraine	Presentation Practical spiritual care at a Danish Hospice Jesper Grud Rasmussen Hospice Diakonis.,DK

Parallel Session II Thursday 21th Sept. 15.00 - 16.00	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Presentation
	Patients' vulnerability How spiritual care make a difference Thora G. Thomsen, Region Sjælland, DK	Pastoral care in the meeting with the seriously ill and dying patient -Existential dialog (Scandinavian language) Rita Nielsen DK	Using rituals to bid farewell Karen Stølen UCC, DK	The plan 'Last days of life' - a way to ensure existential care in the terminal phase of life (Scandinavian language) Marit Irene Hansen VID; Bergen, N	Existential needs and high quality care for persons with deaf blindness Daniel Prause Oslo, N	Spiritual Care Guidelines and existential communication in a Hospice setting Lisbet Due Madsen Hospice Arresødal, DK	Critical Intercultural Communication in Spiritual Care Leila Rossow, VID, Ber
Parallel Session III Friday 22th Sept. 11.15 - 12.15	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Students Workshop	Presentation	Presentation
	The Challenge of Consolation: A qualitative study of nurses' experiences with practicing and teaching spiritual and existential care for the dying Kirsten Tornø, Lovisenberg, Oslo, N	Awareness of your own life- and belief history (Scandinavian language) Elisabeth Mæland, VID, Oslo, N	Exploring Music Listening and Imaging for Self and Patient Care Elisabeth Coombes Newport, GB	How can ethical guidelines be a framework for Spiritual Care? Birthe Ørskov UCD, DK VID, N	Incorporating spirituality into holistic patient assessment Sadie Givvons University of South Wales, UK	How to meet patients with another culture and faith? Louise F. M. Andersen UC Absalon, DK	Spiritual Care from the perspective of Thai nursing students Karnsunaphat Blather Thailand
Parallel Session IV Friday 22th Sept. 13.30 - 14.30	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Workshop	Presentation
	How to use the diamond model? René van Leeuwen, Viaa, Zwolle, NL	Love in connectedness A core category in spirituality Linda Rytkje VID, Bergen, N	Pictures and picture language in spiritual care Malene Elrond UC Absalon, DK	Risking existence: The experience and handling of depression Marte Bygstad-Landro VID, Bergen, N	The use of Wonder in spiritual care Jan B. W. Pedersen UCD, DK	Hope - as resource for patients and their relatives Diana Schack Thoft UCN, DK	Spirituality in nursing - the spiritual needs in the pocket on time (Skandinavian language) Carina M. Hedensted, Hospital Vejle, DK